An assessment that could not be bettered within the time available. The student has demonstrated an achievement beyond the attainment of intended learning outcomes, deep reflection on the topic or question, and an outstanding level of independent research and reading. A detailed answer to the question (including extensive critical evaluation of material) and crucially, clear evidence of creativity, originality and reading beyond essential material. This submission has the possibility of being published. Please reach out to your tutor if there is an interest on this. Many congratulations!

The student has shown a convincing attainment of learning outcomes including a full answer to the question, substantial critical evaluation of the material, a good understanding of the topic, and some evidence of wider reading. Well done on a good-quality submission.

58 55 52
The student has shown in this submission an acceptable attainment of learning outcomes. However, there are some errors/omissions/ inaccuracies, and little or no evidence of reading beyond recommended material and basic use of concepts. Overall, a reasonable answer to the question is presented, including some critical evaluation and mainly a good understanding.

48 45 42
The student has shown a threshold level of attainment of learning outcomes. There is limited relevant information and little evidence of critical evaluation, and little or no evidence of reading beyond recommended core materials. Errors/omissions are found throughout the submission, highlighting a limited understanding of the topic.

38 35 32
The level of attainment of learning outcomes shown in this submission is marginally below threshold. Substantial errors and omissions are found throughout the submission, failing to address the question appropriately. Furthermore, there is little evidence of recommended core reading.
